Per curiam.

ORDER

Appellee was charged by information for the offense of Driving While Intoxicated in cause number 2-107304 in the county court at law No. 2 of Victoria County. The State of Texas appealed the trial court's order suppressing blood draw evidence. The court of appeals affirmed the order of the trial court. Arellano v. State, No. 13-17-00268-CR (Tex. App. —Corpus Christi, delivered February 21, 2019). The State Prosecuting Attorney's petition for discretionary review was granted by this Court on June 5, 2019. Appellee is entitled to representation before this Court at this time.

See Article 1.051(a)(d)(2), V.A.C.C.P. Appellee is without representation in this Court. Accordingly, the trial court is ordered to determine if Appellee is currently represented by counsel, and if so, to inform this court who represents Appellee. If Appellee is not currently represented by counsel and desires counsel, the trial court must first determine whether Appellee is indigent. If the trial court finds Appellee is indigent, that court shall appoint an attorney to represent Appellee before this court in regard to PDR No. PD-0287-19, in accord with the provisions of Articles 1.051 and 26.04, V.A.C.C.P. Any hearing conducted pursuant to this order shall be held within 30 days of the date of this order. The trial court's order appointing counsel, any findings of fact, affidavits, or transcription of the court reporter's notes and any other supplementation of the record shall be returned to this court within 45 days of the date of this order.

IT IS SO ORDERED THIS THE 5th DAY OF JUNE, 2019
